Bellevue News.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Middleton and little granddaughter visited in Iron Mountain last week.

Mrs. Mollie Van Nort, of St. Louis, is visiting her father, P. G. Carv.

Mrs. B. P. Burnham and children were guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Moyer, last week.

Mrs. Frances West and daughter, Miss Opal, of Bismarck, spent last Saturday with Mrs. Leo Moore.

Mrs. J. C. Ricketts and sister, Miss Annie Campbell, were shopping in Iron Mountain last Tuesday.

Miss Rosalee Farrar of Wright City was the guest of Miss Lena Russell last week.

Quite a number from our town attended the Belgrade picnic last Saturday.

Mr. Chambers and Mrs. Auburn Edmonds took their Sunday School classes for a few days' camp on Arcadia Heights. They report a most profitable vacation.

Presiding Elder Wm. Court held the fourth quarterly conference at the M. E. church at this place, last Saturday. He also filled the pulpit on Sunday evening and Sunday at 8 a.m.

Rev. M. M. Blease and wife left last Tuesday for a visit with relatives in Mississippi and Alabama. Mr. Blease will return Friday. Mrs. Blease, who is suffering from a nervous breakdown, will remain a month or more. We trust the rest will benefit her.

We are very glad to note the work still progresses on the Bellevue extension of the railroad. We are expecting a train any time after the first of September. However, we had rather see than hear of it.

Houston McCall and Lawrence Townsend, teachers in the west end, visited homefolks Saturday and Sunday.

Died—On last Thursday at her home, after a lingering illness, Mrs. A. J. Palmer. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Blease at the home on Saturday. The estimation in which she was held, was manifested by the large assembly of relatives and friends at her funeral. All the business houses including the Bank, Post Office, Mill, and Shops, closed for the hour. She was buried in the Eldon Cemetery.

Those attending the funeral and burial services from a distance were: J. D. and Roy Palmer, of Murphysboro, Ill.; Mrs. Ed. Davidson, Sedalia; Mrs. Ella Lowe and daughter, of Fairview, Okla.; Dr. and Mrs. Kerlgen, Bismarck.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Campbell visited friends in Bismarck last Saturday and Sunday.

J. C. Stuart purchased a fine young mare from Dr. Appleberry last Saturday.

Misses Lorene Chappell and Mary Haney of Louisiana, Mo., were guests of Mrs. T. E. Bell the first of the week.

We were told by parties who attended the services at the Baptist Assembly that Sunday was a splendid day. The preaching, music and other features were all that could be desired.

Redmondville Locals.

Married—At the home of the bride's parents, Sunday August 1, Miss Salome Love of Redmondville to Jefferson Blackwell of Blackwell, Mo. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Winfred Cole. The couple departed immediately after the ceremony for Niagara Falls on their honeymoon.

Miss Ida Haines, one of the oldest librarians in the United States, is visiting her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Cundy, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Cundy and Mrs. Laura Davis are on a trip to Doyle Tuesday afternoon.

A crowd, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. White, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Cundy, Mr. and Mrs. Bed Baker, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Vandill, Mesdames Gish, Grammond, Davis, Graham, Pippin, Messrs. Granville Shular, Charley Wolf, Geo. White, Carry White and Miss Helen Dempster, went down to what is known as the rock hole near Edge Hill, Sunday, August 1st, and spent the day fishing, swimming, and playing games. Dinner and supper were served on the grounds, and all who went report a most enjoyable time.

Mr. Ed. White, Charley Mead and Henry White caught a fine string of fish last Sunday.

Web Ray brought a nice load of watermelons to Redmondville Wednesday. This is the first watermelons that have been brought to this place this year.

Wood haulers have been busy in Redmondville the last few days. There were about 100 loads of wood in the way at the hub factory, and Mr. White told the people they could have wood for nothing if they would haul it away at once, and they were not slow in taking advantage of his offer.

There has been quite a change in this place during the last year. A little more than a year ago there was no such place as Redmondville. The White & Hummel Mfg. Co. bought a corn field from John Miller and it was not long until the corn field was converted into a nice little village. This concern has certainly spent some money in this vicinity, and if it had not been for them a great many people who had poor crops last year would have had a much harder time in getting through the winter, and making their crops this year.

There is some talk of the White & Hummel Mfg. Co. putting in a stove plant in connection with their hub factory. We hope this rumor is true, as the putting in of a stove plant would mean the employing of more men and teams, which would help the town grow.

A barber shop is very badly needed in Redmondville. This is a splendid location for a barber shop, and a good barber could certainly do well here.

W. A. Vandill loaded a car load of wagon hubs at East End Thursday.

C. A. White and W. A. Vandill went to Iron Mountain Friday to meet a party from St. Louis and talk over a business proposition.

Mrs. C. A. White left for St. Louis Friday morning on a pleasure trip.

Miss Ida Hines, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cundy, departed for her home in Chicago Friday morning.

There was a dance at the home of Monroe Mayfield last Saturday night. All who attended reported having a nice time.

C. R. Cundy had the misfortune of getting kicked by a mule Thursday afternoon and hurt pretty bad. However, he is getting along nicely at this writing.

PRIMA.

Crane Pond News.

We have had some nice cool weather the past week. Everything looks fine, but the bean vines are dying. The roasting ears are getting too hard for use.

Kraut making is all the go on Crane Pond at present.

There was a dinner on the ground and a grave yard cleaning off, August 7, 1915; and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves fine. After dinner a ball game took place; the girls played against the boys, the girls 21 and the boys 20. Pretty good for the first time for the girls to play.

The school is getting along fine and everybody likes the teacher. The teacher, Miss Edna Depew, went home Friday evening after school was out.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Selinger and family and Eugene Seals visited Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pannebecker last Sunday. Mr. Thompson and George Thompson and Eva Campbell were there.

Mr. Chas. Pannebecker was in Iron Mountain Monday.

The saw-mill in Mrs. Campbell's field is doing well what time they saw. Mr. Will Warren and Mr. A. Ketcherside and wife boarded at Chas. Pannebecker's.

Peaches are plentiful; apples and pears are scarce.

Mrs. Ella Campbell and Mrs. Nettie Pannebecker are going to town to purchase them a cow.

Miss Nettie Ivester and Mrs. Daisy Pinkley went to French Mills, Saturday, to a picnic.

They are talking about having a chicken fry at the old chimney between Mr. Joe Selinger's and Mr. H. Seal's the first of this month. We hope everybody will have a good time. I think the boys are going to play ball.

Not much news this week. I will try to get more in next time.

The Nymph of Arcadia.

[An idealistic poem, based on the beauty of Arcadia and the mystic Ozarks—by Julia Waggoner Ward—"Loma of the Ozarks."]

O, beautiful Nymph! I wouldst have thee awake,

And with thine ideal charm so grace the day;

For the world that loves thee for thine own sweet sake,

Wouldst not have thee, thus dream thy life away.

Awaken then, in the month when nature poses

And while yet the dew on the flowers gleams;

Awake, sweet maiden, and gather thy roses,

In full realization of thy daem.

For, long thou hast lingered 'neath the woodland crest,

Basking in the roseate glow of day,

And now, the "Spring Song,"—that is so loved—so blithe,

Shall awake thee; O, hear the divine lay.

With this laurel, I crown thee in the true light

Of woman's love, and her sacred duty;

For, through Arcadia, thou shalt wed a knight,

Thus, a tribute to thy grace and beauty.

When that title is conferred upon thy choice,

'Twill be on the eve of the bridal day—

And with Arcadia, all will then rejoice in mystic regalia, and rich array.

When wed, from thence, the "Nymph" thou wilt only be

In myth, sacred to the Ozarks and the sea;

Then, through thee, or thy offsprings' maternal pow'r,

"Arcadian Knight-hood," will once more flow.

Each year, thou shouldst grace "The Arcadian Fete"

As would a queen in her beauty and pride,

And when unequal to that annual date,

Then, thy lov'd Knight, in thy stead, should preside.

Like the half-blown rose that responds to the dew,

Thy life shall thus in its beauty unfold.

And leave to Arcadia—glory anew—As to thy memory,—a love untold.

"The Arcadia Fete," which will be featured next June, will mark the opening of the season in this beautiful valley of the Ozarks, and its premature mention is in behalf of the many visitors who are here at the present, attending the Baptist Assembly.

From whence cometh the "Nymph of Arcadia?" that question (which for the present remains a mystery) will, later, be answered through the columns of the IRON COUNTY REGISTER, and the Arcadia Valley Enterprise.

The "Poem" was written as a tribute to the beauty of Arcadia, and is illustrative of its awakening.

Robinson's Famous Shows.

Observant people will note that everything about Robinson's Famous Shows bears the stamp of super-excellence. The special trains of palace cars owned by this show are the finest ever built for the purpose. You will see them unload the handsomest lot of horses that ever delighted the eye of horsemen. Note that the wagons, chariots, cages, etc., are beautiful specimens of handiwork from the world's best builders. Note the harness, trappings and paraphernalia, the costumes, decorations and accessories in every detail and you will see artistic excellence, care and lavish disregard in cost in order that their patrons may have the very best. You will note that the people are all well-dressed ladies and gentlemen, clean, courteous and distinguished in appearance, as befits the character of the exhibition of which they are proud to be servants. All these things mean something, and you who patronize these shows will observe that this high quality pervades the entire institution, down to the smallest detail. It is upon this principle that has been built up the reputation of the Robinson Famous Shows.

Two exhibitions will be given at Fredericktown, Mo., Monday, August 16, 1915.

See the street parade. Doors open at 1 and 7; performances begin one hour later.—Adv.
